

F 1286 – South central part of Azraq groundwater basin

Well F 1286 “WADI EL GHADAF / BAYER ROAD 2” in the south central part of Azraq groundwater basin is the monitoring well with the slowest rate of decline, -0.14 m/yr. The only abstraction well in the area according to the database is a small pastoral well about 1 km away. A long-term decline in water level is observed at this location since at least the late 1990's. The B4/B5 aquifer thickness is forecast to decline to 88 percent at this location by 2030.

